1- Introduction of Tunisia

Tunisia is located in North Africa, only at 140km from Sicily and less than 2 hours flight from most European capital cities, with more than 3000 years civilization: Roman cities, Berber dwellings, Andalousian villages...

Tunisians always represented a connection between the east and the west, Europe and Africa.

Its population is a mix of different origins: Berbers, Arabs and Europeans.

Tunisia is prime territory for a straight forward sun-sand-and-sea holiday.

But beyond the beaches, it's a thrilling, underrated destination where distinct cultures and incredible extremes of landscape – forested coastlines, Saharan sand dunes in the south – can be explored in just a few days.

Carthage

Carthage

One of the most famous cities of the Mediterranean in the antiquity. Homeland of the general Hannibal, one of greatest military leader's in history, Carthage used to control the trade in the Mediterranean basin before being destroyed and rebuilt by the Romans. The archaeological park of Carthage, offers an exceptional visit of the third largest bath of the Roman Time, the Antonine baths!

Sidi Bou Said

CARTHAGE => SIDI BOU SAID : 30 MIN DRIVING DISTANCE

Sidi Bou Said

Famous for its white and blue houses and it's Andalusian architecture this hilltop village is considered as the most beautiful Village of the country. The view from Sidi Bou Said is absolutely phenomenal. The town is also said to have inspired famous painter Paul Klee and famous writer Andre Gide.

Bardo Museum

The main draw at the Tunisia's top museum is its magnificent collection of Roman mosaics. These provide a vibrant and fascinating portrait of ancient North African life. Also here is some equally magnificent Hellenistic and Punic statuary. The massive collection is housed in an imposing palace complex built under the Hafsids (1228–1574), and fortified and extended by the Ottomans in the 18th century. The original palace buildings now connect with a dramatic contemporary annexe, which has doubled the exhibition space.

Dougga

TUNIS => DOUGGA : 2HR DRIVING DISTANCE

Dougga

Dougga or Thugga was a Punic, Berber and Roman settlement near present-day Tébour Souk in northern Tunisia. 3- Introduction of Tunisian Food

The diversity of culture is visible also through the local food which is an interesting mix of European, North African and Turkish style. Couscous, Brick and Mechwia are some of the most famous specialties. Usually set menus are served in three courses : starter, Main course then fruits.

Starters

Brik: Delicious, crispy pastery rapped arround filling and usally deep fried. The filling is made with potato, eggs and parsly but you can add tuna or shrimps.

Chorba : is a traditional Tunisian wheat soup. It can be with lamb, chicken or fish. Tunisian also prepare some vegetable soup with creme «velouté» .

Mechwia: means grilled salad. In fact all ingredients (tomatoes, peppers, onions and garlic) are all grilled then ground and seasoned together.
